Modern and Contemporary Miami-based Oliver Cole Gallery showcases emerging, mid-career, and critically recognized established international artists. The gallery's Founder/Chief Curator, Oliver Cole, has been involved in the art industry for the past 37 years. After completing a master's degree in fine art in 1996 and receiving the prestigious Traveling School Award from the Ivy League School in Boston, Cole relocated to New York City, where he spent the next eight years working on various curatorial projects, opening his first gallery in Miami Beach in 2004. The gallery is currently dedicated to making the best Modern and Contemporary works available to a sophisticated circle of well-versed art collectors.

The selected works below will allow art collectors to look at some of the available works in the privacy of their homes so that they approach the gallery's booth ready to acquire the perfect pieces for their collections.
